COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Tuesday Afternoon

Mr. Zewadski appeared in regard to his bill of $199 for legal services. The board, before its adjournment for dinner, voted that only $50 of it be paid. A reconsideration of it was had and carried and then it was ordered that the face of it be paid, with the understanding that Mr. Z. will sue the surety company's bond and collect same, $299, and receive compensation out of said amount for his services, including cost, $8.

On motion of Mr. Long, all county officers' bonds, where the sureties had been properly qualified, were approved, which consisted of Thos. E. Pastour, county treasurer; Evan P. Thagard, tax collector; Robert Bullock, county judge; P. H. Nugent, sheriff; W. D. Carn, county superintendent of schools; Alfred Ayer, tax collector; S. T. Sistrunk, county clerk.

The bonds of the following persons were approved for justices of the peace: Jno. B. Barksdale, T. D. Crawford, Edgar S. Smith, James Garvin, M. H. Ron, H. W. Douglass, J. W. Coulter, B. I. Freymouth (to keep peace at the poor farm), W. J. Dodson, William W. Jackson, J. O. Tarpniseed and Alec Wynne.

Constables: L. L. Priest, S. A. Bullock, S. J. Dillard, W. R. Johns, J. L. B. Hudgens, and John A. Brabham. Bond of Paul A. Snow, inspector of marks and brands, was also approved. Clarence J. Smith, ex J. P. of Weir Park, appeared before the board to have his bill approved, in the preliminary hearing of the case of Nic Myers and others in 1898, which resulted in their conviction at the fall term of the court. Approved.

Geo. Turner, of Gaiter, appeared before the board and desired to know the action of that body in the Stark's ferry bridge matter. He was informed that Marion would pay two-thirds of the cost, if Citrus would pay the other third which she declines to do, being only willing to pay $150 of the $295 which would be Citrus' share if it paid one third of the cost. Mr. Turner thought Citrus county should pay one third, but if they would not Mr. Turner thought the people of his section were so desirous to have the bridge built, they would contribute the deficit, $145.

Mrs. Allen Rogers is the party that kept an itemized account of the cost of building the Ocala and Silver Springs road, including the number of men on the work, whether convicts or paid labor, teams employed, etc. It is all in neat book form and will make a valuable volume of reference. It is in the keeping of Clerk Sistrunk.

The county commissioners audited 102 bills, all of which warrants Mr. S. T. Sistrunk, the county clerk, must draw, which gives some idea of the work required to draw the warrants issued each month by the board.

The bill of costs of the justices run as follows: T. D. Crawford, nine cases, $115.22; R. Bullock, two cases, $26.66; Edgar S. Smith, one case, $5.13; B. P. Wilson, $7; Clarence J. Smith, preliminary trial of Nic Myers and others, $12.24.

N. A. Port spent on the Ocala, Kendrick and Martin road $258.31; Allen Rogers, $790.85, of which $256.75 was for teams; E. E. Perkins, in district No. 4, $180.70; V. M. Seckinger, district No. 2, $42.67; H. A. Lee, No. 5, $45.01; F. S. Lucius, $89.90; W. W. McCully, $5.10.

The general bills footed up $828.83. Of this the poor farm was debited with $81.43.

The treasurer's commissions were $15.98, while the tax collector drew $23.08. The disappearance of Theophilus Williams, a juror in the Jacobs case, cost in stenographer's fees $3.85.

After checking up the treasurer's report, which they found O. K., the commissioners adjourned on an empty county treasury.

Judge Swayne, in the United States court, Pensacola, Saturday, enjoined the state from selling the property of the old F. C. & P. Railroad to pay a judgment secured by the state of $90,000,000.

P. P. P. Pleasant Purgative Pellets, contain no calomel. Nothing better. Price, 15 cents. Tydings & Co.

CORDEAL

Mr. J. V. Burke and family left Friday for Marianna, their future home. We are sorry to lose this estimable family from our midst, and the best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Mr. W. W. Haynes, one of Ocala's successful young attorneys, was a visitor here the latter part of last week soliciting orders for the Thacher Med. Co., of Chattanooga.

Mrs. J. H. McConn and family are thinking of moving to a place near Santos. We will be sorry to have them leave us.—Cordeal Journal.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The city council met last night with the entire nine members in their seats.

Mr. Hood, of Dunnellon, through Mr. Alford, asked the city to sell him the hose condemned by the fire department. Referred to fire committee with power to act.

Thomas Miller, a one armed negro drayman, was granted a free drayman's license.

A communication was read from the firemen, asking the council to act on the fire department ordinance as soon as possible and dispose of the matter one way or the other. The ordinance was laid on the table until the next regular meeting. Considerable discussion took place regarding its provisions.

The judgment of $50 and $7.76 costs of B. H. Seymour against the city, was ordered paid.

J. R. Hamilton filed a communication asking the city to allow him to bore the wells necessary to drain Taylor's pond. The matter was referred to the judiciary committee with instructions to report at the next regular meeting.

The insurance policy on the city building was reduced from $2500 to $500 on the building and $250 on the furniture. When the policy of $3000 on the fire station expires, it will be renewed for $500.

The ordinance requiring city bill posters to pay a license of $10 was amended to $15 and passed its second reading.

A committee consisting of Councilmen Livingston and Edwards, the city attorney and Ex-Councilman Benjamin was appointed to wait on the county commissioners and ask for a year's taxes due the city from the county on the Silver Springs hard road, same being a period several years past, which was not included, through some oversight or misunderstanding, in the recent settlement between the city and county, when the city and county joined issue in this good work.

The city water company was instructed to repair Exposition street where mains had been removed.

The marshal was asked to have the show bill boards removed from the court house square.

The chairman of the street committee was instructed to wait on D. Williams, the street commissioner, whose services were dispensed with on the 1st, and demand of him the city's mules, carts and tools, same to be turned over to F. M. Dodson, the newly appointed street commissioner and sanitary inspector.

The usual bills and salaries were ordered paid and the officers' reports received and referred to their proper committees. The council adjourned to meet tonight, when the matter of Messrs. Williams and McDuffy's refusal to vacate their jobs will be taken up. These men say they were hired for a year, which ends June 1 next, and propose to draw their salaries until that time. They have sought legal advice and some fun and complications are expected.

Dr. A. L. Izlar and John R. Martin are candidates for alderman from the third ward.

The clerk was instructed at the meeting of the council last night to have the ballots printed for the approaching election.
